

In light of your upcoming localism hearing, I wanted to let you know that I am completely satisfied with the Clear Channel radio stations I listen to. I commute between Washington D.C. and Phoenix, AZ and feel strongly that the Clear Channel stations I listen to in both cities are doing a great job representing their local communities.

Please keep these comments in mind as you prepare for your next hearing.